

Privacy Policy for BLOCKTRACTS Foundation

BLOCKTRACTS Foundation, as the data controller of your personal data, is committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains how we process information collected through the BLOCKTRACTS dApp and why we collect certain personal data about you. It is important that you read this Privacy Policy before using the BLOCKTRACTS dApp.

Collection of Personal Information:

When you visit the BLOCKTRACTS dApp, we automatically collect certain information about your device, such as your web browser, IP address, time zone, and cookies installed on your device. We also collect information about the pages or products you view, websites or search terms that referred you to the dApp, and how you interact with the dApp (referred to as “Device Information”). Additionally, we may collect personal data you provide to us (e.g., name, surname, address, payment information) when you register or engage with us.

Purpose of Data Processing:

Our primary concern is the security of customer data. Therefore, we process only minimal user data necessary to maintain the BLOCKTRACTS dApp. Automatically collected information helps us identify potential abuse cases and gather statistical information on dApp usage. This statistical information does not identify individual users unless necessary for system security or as required by law.

You may visit the dApp anonymously, without revealing any personal information. However, to utilize certain features such as receiving our newsletter or contacting us, you may need to provide personal data (e.g., email, name, city, organization, telephone number). Choosing not to provide such data may restrict access to some dApp features.

Your Rights:

If you are a European resident, you have specific rights regarding your personal data, including the right to be informed, access, rectification, erasure, restrict processing, data portability, object to processing, and rights related to automated decision-making and profiling. To exercise these rights or for any inquiries regarding your data, please contact us at the email provided below.

Legal Disclosure and Information Security:

We take measures to secure your information in a controlled environment, protecting it from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. While we employ reasonable security measures, we cannot guarantee absolute security over the Internet or wireless networks.

We may disclose collected information if required by law, to protect our rights, your safety, or investigate fraud.

Links to Other Websites:

Our dApp may contain links to third-party websites not owned or controlled by us. We are not responsible for the privacy practices or content of these websites. We encourage you to review their privacy policies upon leaving our dApp.
